

Resource Material – Language Arts - Reading

Category	Type	Title	Annotation
AA001025	Worksheets	Supplemental Worksheets Edmark 1#2	The Supplemental worksheets for the Edmark Reading Program, level 2 consist of 140 separate worksheets – one worksheet for each 2 words, taught in the program, plus 20 Word Quiz sheets and 20 stories with comprehensive questions.
AA001061	Book	Caught Reading Plus – Teachers Manual	The program provides a complete and balanced solution for teaching students to read. Throughout the seven levels of the program, there is an emphasis on explicit phonics and reading skill development, as well as exposure to a wide variety of literature.
AA001065	Book	Cool Tools-Informed Reading Assessments	This product was designed to serve classroom teachers’ needs for informal, sequential measures of a student’s reading abilities across the five areas of reading instruction identified by the 2000 report, of the National Reading Panel; Phonological Awareness phonics, fluency, vocabulary, text comprehension.
AA001077	Book and Notebook	Great Leaps Reading 3-5	The Great Leaps Elementary Reading Program hopes to provide meaningful practice for the dysfunctional elementary reader Great Leaps materials are remedial in nature – hoping to guide the tutor in efficient remedial work. Great Leaps Reading has a strong therapeutic component, hoping to motivate and guide students toward a life success.
AA001078	Book	Great Leaps Reading 6-8	The Great Leaps Middle School Reading Program hopes to provide meaningful reading practice for the adolescent with reading problems. This program has been designed primarily with 6 th , 7 th , and 8 th grade dysfunctional reader in mind. Teacher’s Edition. Student Edition.
AA001079	Book	Great Leaps Reading 9-12	At the high school level Great Leaps materials, there is more of an emphasis upon content and less upon the language. The stories in the high school edition have been designed for the older adolescent. There are stories at all reading levels.
AA001088	Book	Let Me Read Take Home Package	Delightful stories motivate students to become independent readers. Let Me Read Books invite beginning readers to choose a book to read on their own. Brightly illustrated books feature predictable language and strong picture/text connections to support early independent reading. Package includes 17 books, black line masters of 20 Little Books and a Take Home Kit with letters to families and tools for tracking home reading.
AA002022	Game Board 108 Magnetic Pieces	“Sort and Say” First 100 Sight Words and Sentence Maker	Here’s a magnetic set to help your children improve their early sight word, reading, spelling and sentence making skills. Kids can arrange words by category: People, Places and Things (nouns). Action words – verbs, Describing Words (adjectives) and Sentence Helpers (pronouns articles, adverbs, prepositions, conjunctions, capital words and punctuation marks. The double-sided titles have words in black print on one side and color-coded parts of speech on the other.

Category	Type	Title	Annotation
AA002025	Big Book	Blue Cat	Children will learn colors blue, green, orange yellow, red, purple pink, and gray, with an interesting outcome.
AA002026	Video	Reading in The Content Areas With Resource Based CRISS Strategies- Elementary Edition	Project CRISS (Creating Independence Through Student – owned Strategies) provides teachers with a philosophy, planning, guidelines, and classroom strategies to help students read and comprehend in the various content areas.
AA002027	Video	Reading in The Content Areas With Research-Based CRISS Strategies- Secondary Edition	Project CRISS (Creating Independence Through Student – owned Strategies) provides teachers with a philosophy, planning guidelines, and classroom strategies to help students read and comprehend in the various content areas.
AA002028	Book	Walking for Freedom. The Montgomery Bus Boycott	Story of segregation and a woman’s fight to sit anywhere she wanted on a bus in Montgomery, Alabama.
AA002029	Book	Days of Courage. The Little Rock Story	Book on history of civil right movement and 9 black students from Little Rock, Arkansas, who risk their lives to attend an all white school.
AA002030	Book (10)	Timed Reading Plus	Timed Reading Plus is designed to develop both reading speed and comprehension. A timed selection in each lesson focuses on improving reading rate. A non-timed selection – the “plus” selection – follows the timed selection. The non-timed selection concentrates on building mastery in critical areas of comprehension. The 10 books in the series span reading levels 4-13 with one book at each level.
AA002031	Book	Improving Adolescent Literacy – Strategies at Work	Book is organized into ten chapters – Common questions about content area literacy are presented - strategies addressing those questions are given along with rationale for the strategies (research based) and test preparation that can be infused into all context areas.